

Anniversary Ketubah Text

On the _____ day of the week, the _____ day of the month of _____, the year _____, we entered into the covenant of marriage.

Today, on the _____ day of the month of _____, the year _____, we celebrate our _____ anniversary to commemorate and reaffirm our commitment to one another.

We made a commitment to build a Jewish home together, filled with love, care, and joy. Together, we exceeded that commitment.

We celebrated together, went through hardships together. We shared moments of happiness, alongside moments of sadness. Always together.

Our bond grows stronger every year. We will continue to love, care and respect each other to find out just how strong it can get.

Neither of us is perfect. But we strive to better each other every single day.

It's been an amazing adventure so far, and we look forward to continuing our journey forward as a unity, together with our beloved family and friends.

We don't know what the future holds, but we do know that whatever it is – we will experience it together – side by side.

Bride _____

Groom _____

Rabbi _____

Witness _____

Witness _____